1,2,3,4    1,2,3

Brother [C] Bertie went away
To do his [G7] bit the other day
[G7] With a smile on his lips and his Lieutenant's pips upon his [C] shoulder bright and gay
[C] As the train pulled out he said,
[C] 'Remember [G7] me to all the birds.'
[G7] Then he wagged his paw and went away to war
Shouting [C] out these pathetic words:

[C] Good - bye-ee, good [F] bye-ee,
Wipe the [G7] tear, baby dear, from your [C] eye-ee,
Tho' it's [F] hard to part I [C] know [A7]
[D7] I'll be __[G7] tickled to death to go____Don't
[C] Cry-ee, don't [F] sigh-ee,
[G7] There's a silver lining in the [C] sky-ee,
[C] Bonsoir, old thing, cheer-i-[F] o, chin, [Dm] chin,
Nah-[G7] poo, toodle- oo, Good [C]bye-ee [G7]

At a [C] concert down in Kew, Some conva [G7] lescents, dressed in blue,
[G7] Had-to-listen-to-Lady-Lee, who was well turned 93,
Sing all the [C] daft old songs that she knew.
[C] Then she made a speech and said, "I look [G7] upon you boys with pride,
[G7] And for what you've done I'm going to kiss each one",
Then they [C] all grabbed their crutches and cried:

REPEAT CHORUS 2X    ENDING LAST LINE WITH

Nah-[G7] poo, toodle- oo, Good [C]bye-ee [G7] [C] (Rake)
